COLLEGIANS AT A BANQUET

Berkeley Students Celebrate the Victory Over Stanford.

They Make Toasts and Give the College Yell—
Songs That Were Sung on the Campus—Will Meet Again.

Ha! Ha! Ha!
Californ—iab!
U. C! Berkeley!
Zip! Boom! Ah!

This was the sound that leaked out of the private dining room of the hotel at about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night and Berkeley would indeed have been proud to hear, far out in the Pacific the yell that on last Thanksgiving day announced the victory of U. C. over Stanford in the great football struggle.

In the private dining room graduates and undergraduates of U. C. had gathered around the festive board to celebrate that victory and to bring into closer contact than ever before the young men and women in Hawaii who proudly call Berkeley their Alma Mater.

Those present were: Dr. Taylor, who has been Professor of Surgery in the Medical Department at the University of California for eighteen years; Dr. J. T. Wayson, '91, graduate of the Medical Department; Lieut. F. C. Turner and A. V. Gear, '87; Mrs. F. C. Turner, '89; Fred Jacobs, '91; J. Sedgwick, '96; C. A. Elston, '97; P. M. Newhall, W. W. Arkley, J. E. McGuire, W. W. Bristol, H. L. Waste, T. R. Fairchild, '98; F. Raven, '99; W. W. Drum, 1900; W. J. Morgan, 1901. Among the absent ones were: Miss Gertrude Scott, who sent in a handsome bouquet to show that she had not forgotten the occasion; P. L. Weaver, J. Eckhart and A. J. Campbell.

The dinner completed, A. V. Gear was made toastmaster by request and the remainder of the festivities proceeded. The toasts were as follows: "How Honolulu received the news of the recent football victory," Bristol, '98; "The college football man," Morgan, '90; "Uncle Sam's side of it," Newhall, '98; "Our Alma Mater," Fairchild, '98; "The results of a football game from a standpoint of medicine," Dr. Taylor. Other toasts were responded to by Messrs. Elston, Jacobs and Dr. Wayson.

To wind up with, it was voted that other occasions of the kind, at least once a year, be held. A. V. Gear was elected chairman with full power to call these meetings, and C. A. Elston was elected secretary and treasurer.

James F. Morgan, New Honolulu's progressive auctioneer, had a crowd at his auction sale of toys last Saturday night. Some big bargains were had. Tomorrow night he will hold another auction sale at his Queen street store. In addition to toys he will sell fancy goods and a line of New Crescent bicycles. See Morgan's Auction Sales on page 8.

JAPANESE LABORERS STRIKE

Koloa Plantation has an Experience with New Arrivals.

Police Called from Lihue—Strikers Chased to the Court House and then Marched to Lihue Jail—Return to Work.

Koloa plantation has had more trouble with its laborers. Last time it was with the Chinese, and now the Japanese have taken a hand.

Monday morning last, the Sheriff was informed that the new lot of Japanese, 364 in all, had gone out on a strike. The police were called in and the Sheriff and party left Lihue for Koloa at a rapid gallop. Arriving there, they found the Japanese collected about their dwellings in a very menacing attitude. In their hands were clubs, and at their sides good sized stones.

Manager Cropp had, in the meantime, informed the police of the cause of the trouble. He stated that there was one water tap used by both the Chinese and Japanese laborers. On Sunday evening a Japanese kicked over a Chinaman while he was drawing water. This started a small-sized row. The police interfered and the Japanese pelted them with rocks.

The next morning the Japanese went out on a strike, as already detailed. When asked by the Sheriff if the trouble was about the water, they replied in negative. Their complaint was against the plantation management who, they affirmed, had not lived up to the terms of the contracts under which they have been employed.

The Japanese began beating tin cans and waving their clubs as if bent on mischief, declaring all the while that they would stay out on a strike until the arrival of their Consul.

Manager Cropp got out a warrant immediately, the police stepped in and the Japanese were driven to the court house yard. In the evening they were surrounded by police and started on their way to Lihue jail where they arrived early next morning.

The sojourn inside the jail walls had a good effect and the next day, the temperature of the strike fever had diminished so perceptibly that the whole lot promised to return to work. There has been no further trouble since that time.

SALE OF RUGS.

It will be held at 7 O'clock This Evening.

Tonight Morgan's great sale of costly and artistic Turkish and Persian rugs will be continued by special request. These rugs are appealing to the artistic tastes of New Honolulu. Tonight some of the most costly rugs in the entire collection will be placed on sale. This will be the last opportunity the people of this city will have to buy such fine rugs at such low figures, as the United States duty imposed almost prohibits their importation.

Last Friday a lady bought a rug for $150. After the purchase another lady offered her $250 for it. This gives an idea of the great bargains to be had at these sales.

Tribute to Donor.

The pupils of the Kamehameha Schools made their annual turnout and visit for the performance of their "Decoration Day" services, this morning. The scholars preceded by the school's band marched to the Bernice Pauahi Bishop lot situated in Nuanu cemetery and on arrival there placed many beautiful floral decorations on the grave of loved founder of the school. The graves of former scholars of the school were also appropriately graced with floral tributes.

Gordon College at Khartoum.

The American millionaire Waldorf Astor has subscribed $5,000 towards the Gordon Memorial College at Khartoum.

A VERITABLE ART EXHIBIT

Exquisite Things in China, Glass and Other Wares.

A Marvelous Display of Articles Which May
Be Seen at the Stores of J. T.
Waterhouse.

The Crockery Department of J. T. Waterhouse, always attractive and pleasing, is today a veritable art exhibit of rare and exquisite things from all over the world.

It is a revelation to inspect, however casually, the many pieces of glass, China and fancy wares and see the high degree of skill required in their manufacture, even if one be deprived of the means to purchase. Visitors are always welcomed.

In Coalport China there are the richest and most pleasing things in vases, trinket sets, cups and saucers, bon bon boxes and pin trays; in Minton China, delicate shaded tea sets, pitchers and vases; in Crown Derby China, articles of the most fantastic designs and patterns to gladden femininity. In Royal Worcester China there is a large and varied display, handsome in patterns and substantial in service. Then there is fancy Doulton ware and Wedgwood ware in white and blue and blue and green shades, tea pots and flower pots to adorn the table and the parlor.

The display of bisque figures is multifarious in character, design and groupings. The statuettes in form reveal proportions almost perfect and the ease and grace of pose add to the harmonizing outlines.

The Bohemian and Venetian glass exhibit is a marvel. Prismatic colors radiate and converge as the spectator changes position. There is a wealth of richest and varied lights and shades; a comingling of glowing, sparkling light and dusky shadowing. Beautiful ware! fit for a king, aye a god! The firm has cut glass vases from 25 cents upwards.

In Rochester lamps as well as Dresden figures there are some harmonizing and rich conceptions.

The store of J. T. Waterhouse will be open evenings and all should see the collection. It will pay you, and you are assured the most courteous treatment whether you buy or not.

No Scarcity of Turkeys for Xmas.

The Metropolitan Meat Co. will receive by the Miowera, from Winnipeg, a large consignment of turkeys, geese, chickens and ducks.

Also by S. S. Anstralia from California, a consignment of California turkeys and wild game.

Also have Hawaiian turkeys, both dressed and alive, for sale at their store.

For West Indian Sugar Planters.

Sir Thomas Lipton, at the instance of Mr. Chamberlain, is sending experts to Barbadoes to examine into the sugar industry. If their report be favorable, he will invest one million sterling in developing the industry.

M. McInerney, New Honolulu's leading haberdasher, is showing an elegant line of bath robes of European make. They are of eider down. The robes will never be as cheap as now, as the duty shortly to be imposed precludes present prices prevailing. See the firm's announcement on page 4.

Those viewing the displays of merchants evenings should not miss seeing the windows and stores of J. T. Waterhouse in the Waverley Block on Bethel street. The displays in the windows are extremely attractive and are well worth seeing. Visitors are most cordially welcomed. Don't overlook Waterhouse's stores. See them.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Favors Control of Canal and Army and Navy Increase.

General news of the World—Germany Wants the Carolines—Chinese Empress Warlike.

London, Dec. 8.—President McKinley's Message declares the construction of the Nicaragua canal with American control indispensable.

Referring to China, the President claims friendly indiscriminate treatment of American commerce from the new occupants of the Chinese ports, and proposes the formation of a committee to study the commercial and industrial conditions in China.

He also urges regular and frequent steamship communication under the American flag with the new possessions, including the Philippines and endorses increase of the army and navy.

Germany and the Carolines.
The London Times Washington correspondent telegraphs that Spain is negotiating for the sale of the Caroline Islands to Germany. It is believed the United States will not object, although she may wish to buy one island for a coaling and cable station.

Alger's Colonial Plans.
London, December 5.—The Hon. Russell Alger, Secretary for War, recommends recruiting a portion of the new troops from the natives of the Antilles and Philippines, and the building of a railway throughout Cuba at a cost of twenty million dollars.

Sequel to Dreyfus Agitation.
London, Dec. 3rd.—The Senate has adopted a motion extending to military tribunals the abolition of secret examination. M. de Freycinet, Minister of War, opposed the amendment, excepting in cases of national danger.

Opening of the Reichstag.
The Emperor William in opening the Reichstag announced forthcoming bills providing for an increase in the army, and preventing the terrorizing of workmen willing to work.

THE WAR WITH SPAIN.

Stirring Scenes of Battle and Manoeuvr to be Shown Here.

The live BULLETIN's many readers have read much about the war with Spain; they have seen many of its thrilling features depicted in the illustrated papers. But on Saturday evening they will have an opportunity of viewing the dreadful realities of war with the softer and humanizing lights and shades of carnage.

At that time a grand Christmas eve exhibition of the most famous of life motion picture machines, the Cineograph, will be given. There will be a large number of Spanish-American war pictures shown, and the spectators will realize that they are present while the actual scenes are being enacted, so realistic are the films in depiction. Some of the views exhibited will be: The battle of Guantanamo; execution of a Spanish spy; raising the American flag at Manila; President McKinley and Cabinet reviewing the troops at Camp Alger.

The Red Cross film illustrates members of that Society and the Sisters of Charity moving about the field after the cessation of hostilities, administering comfort to the wounded. It is worth alone the price of admission. The removal of the dead is faithfully depicted. To please the athletes, an eastern struggle of college elevens on the gridiron will be shown. The butterfly dance, a fairy scene, another of the many attractions.

But this is not all: L. M. Weaver the basso profundo and Harry Preston, well-known here, will render several songs. Reserved seats now on sale at Wall, Nichols Company. See New Today on page 8 of the live paper.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

REORGANIZED CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST holds meetings as follows in Milliani Hall, rear of Opera House: Sunday 10 a. m. Bible class; 11 a. m. preaching in Hawaiian; 6:30 p. m. preaching in English; Wednesday 7:30 p. m. prayer meeting.

HABEAS CORPUS CASE

Return day and hour of three new and distinct habeas corpus cases of Chinese refused admission to this country coincided with the stated opening of the December term of the Supreme Court this morning. Associate Justice Whiting was present with Chief Justice Judd, before whom individually the writ commanded the petitioners to be produced. The habeas corpus cases came up first. They exhibited before all was over about as many points as quills upon the fretful porcupine.

Attorney General W. O. Smith began with a statement that Thurston & Carter had been associated with him as counsel for respondents. He then moved that a day be appointed for hearing before the full court.

G. D. Gear for respondents saw no objection to the full court.

Chief Justice Judd suggested the question for argument whether or not he was disqualified from having heard a previous case of the same series.

The Attorney General, while admitting that these cases were not appeals, suggested that the Chief Justice's sitting might conflict with the spirit, if it did not with the letter, of the constitution.

Messrs. Gear and Silliman argued that a justice of the Supreme Court who had sat on an assumption or an ejection case might just as well be disqualified from sitting on any similar case of the same kind.

Judge Perry of the Circuit Court was here introduced to sit in place of Associate Justice Frear, absent.

Justice Whiting, after a little more talk on the same point by counsel, announced that Judge Perry and himself agreed that the Chief Justice was not disqualified.

The hearing was fixed for Wednesday, the Attorney General promising Mr. Gear to make re-ture, in the case in which the latter was interested, as soon as possible.

Next came up the matter of the custody of petitioners meanwhile.

The Court remanded the petitioners to the quarantine station in charge of the officer of the Court. It now seemed as if the matter were over till Wednesday, but a sudden diversion occurred which started a whole hour's argument.

After lively cross fire between the attorneys, Mr. Magoon said that, after a conversation with the Attorney General, he would ask leave to withdraw his motion.

Among the through passengers in the China is H. I. H. the Grand Duke Cyril of Russia and valet. The Grand Duke is accompanied by Lieutenants Coube and Powzanoff, I. R. N., his aides. He is now on his way home to St. Petersburg, after having served on the Asiatic station.
